

St. James Lutheran Church Mission Statement

~To connect people to God and one another, welcoming all and changing lives!~

Children of God,

We are in the midst of Lent. The “alleluias” have been removed from worship. We continue our journey with Jesus to the cross. On March 31, we will hear the Good News of Christ’s resurrection from the tomb! But for now we journey, we wait...

One of the ways I have personally strived to journey with Jesus so far this Lenten season is through prayer. Our Lenten dinner church series “Crafting Questions” has also focused on asking questions about prayer through conversation and worship. 1 Thessalonians 5:7 urges the church to “rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances.” This is a difficult thing to do during most seasons of our lives, especially when we may ask questions like how do we pray without ceasing and does doing so really make a difference in our lives? Perhaps we need to define what prayer means: Anne Lamott, author of Help. Thanks. Wow., says “prayer means that, in some unique way, we believe we’re invited into a relationship with someone who hears us when we speak in silence.” Prayer is conversation with God who invites us to share our thoughts and promises to hear us, whether we are praying with our hands folded and heads bowed, through tears or laughs, in song or dance, or the everyday mundane task of folding laundry or standing in the grocery store line. God invites us in, invites us to be real, and tells us throughout Scripture that we are heard and we are loved.

We will hear of God’s great love for us during Holy Week: On Palm Sunday we will mark Christ’s triumphal entry into Jerusalem and wave our palms, shouting “hosanna,” and during Sunday school time we will “Journey with Jesus” through activity stations to help us prepare for Easter. On Maundy Thursday we will celebrate the Last Supper with our 1st communion students and strip the sanctuary and altar bare. On Good Friday we will cry out to God as we hear Christ’s final words on the cross. Finally, on Easter we will rejoice that death does not have the final word over our lives! Allelu— we’ll wait.

Peace,

Pastor Rebecca

The list of members unable to be out and about continues to grow. Help is needed to visit these members. WELCA visits each member who is home-bound once every two months. But this group could really use some additional help. Those who presently visit find this a rewarding experience. Those being visited are very thankful you came to see them and giving them a connection to their church home. Please give this prayerful consideration and join those who already visit. Contact the church office 267-2274 if you'd like to help!

As part of their first communion instruction St. James youth joined other youth from St. Peter's in Greene to create their own chalice (cup) and paten (plate) out of clay. A liturgical potter from Greene helped the youth to shape their pottery and then fired the pieces at her studio. Maundy Thursday the youth will be served their first communion from the pieces they made. We give thanks for this milestone in Presley, Lulu, Owen and Brylen's faith journey!
